About the Cover: With grief, frustration, or injury come tears of pain. St. Paul preached Christ crucified and risen again, the very source of the joy Paul wanted everyone to know. When many lived as enemies of the cross of Christ and ignored His forgiveness, Paul was brought to tears. For whom do our tears flow? For those who don't know Christ? The same crucified and risen Christ can wipe away all tears.

“Christian stewardship is the free and joyous activity of the child of God and God’s family, the church, in managing all of life and life’s resources for God’s purposes.*”

The above definition of Christian Stewardship has been used in our church for a few decades. It contains only 29 words, but what a mouthful when you consider the application of the various parts of the definition.

This week consider:

“Child of God” What a beautiful title for God’s people! The opening verses of 1 John 3 speak of the lavish love of God resulting in making us His very own children. What great good news and what a powerful reminder of the proper motivation for our stewardship activity – love to our God who first loved us.
