LIFE THOUGHTS: On Pentecost, we see the fulfillment of Jesus' promise of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26). We see the fulfillment of that promise daily as the Holy Spirit comes to us through the means of grace. He is our "Helper," the very presence of God, as we deal with life's struggles. He is our Truth that teaches us "all things" when we deal with life's falsehoods. We rely on His presence and His truth not on what the world offers or what our feelings tell us.

About the Cover: The miracle of Pentecost that we celebrate today is not the wind or the flames or even the sudden gift of many languages. The miracle is the fulfillment of the Savior's promise to send the Helper, the Holy Spirit, recorded in this simple statement: "They were all filled with the Holy Spirit." That miracle still occurs as the Spirit works in our hearts through the Word and Baptism.
